(For Immediate Release) September 28, 2009 Oakland, ME: T-Mobile, the U.S. wireless operation of Deutsche Telekom AG, is hiring 130 employees at its Oakland, Maine call center this fall. Three job fairs are scheduled, beginning October 8th, at the Oakland Call Center on FirstPark Drive.

Since opening its Oakland location in 2006, T-Mobile has consistently employed just over 800 people.

Also, the company continues to be recognized as one of the leading employers in Maine. T-Mobile has been named one of the "Best Places to Work in Maine" by the Maine State Council of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM). T-Mobile Oakland was also recognized as a "Best Place to Work" in 2006, 2007 and 2008.

"We at T-Mobile are very proud to be recognized as one of the Best Places to Work in Maine," said Oakland Call Center General Manager Mark Nolan. "The recognition reflects the commitment all of our 800 plus T-Mobile employees have to each other and to our customers."

"T-Mobile has kept its employment numbers at the same consistent level for three years now," said Matt Jacobson, President and CEO of Maine & Company. "The recognition of a 'Best Place to Work' in Maine, and the company's continued commitment to employment in the Oakland area, speaks volumes of the value of T-Mobile to the Maine economy."

Maine & Company, a private, non-profit corporation that provides free and confidential services to companies locating in Maine, worked directly with T-Mobile in 2004 as it considered locations across the country for a new customer service center before selecting Maine.

"Maine & Company is proud to have played a significant role in bringing T-Mobile to Maine, a company that continues to contribute to Maine's workforce," added Jacobson. "T-Mobile was a great addition to Maine's business community and continues to be a great place for Maine workers."
