

Innovators are drawn
Hard workers are born
Brilliant minds are developed
Great products are made

Forward-thinking businesses are thriving — in Maine.

Because of our lifestyle and unique character, Maine attracts independent and hard-working people, and businesses looking for more than just a sensible place to locate.

From our technology infrastructure to our highly-educated population and historic manufacturing base, the advantages of Maine have attracted and retained cutting-edge businesses in biotech, manufacturing, information technology, and more.
